PER CURIAM

Jessica Danielle Perez pled guilty to aggravated assault, Idaho Code §§ 18-901(b), 18-905(a). The district court withheld judgment and placed Perez on probation. Subsequently, Perez admitted to violating several terms of her probation. The district court revoked probation and the withheld judgment and sentenced Perez to a unified term of five years, with two and one-half years determinate. Perez appeals, contending her sentence is excessive.

Sentencing is a matter for the trial court’s discretion. Both our standard of review and the factors to be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of the sentence are well established and need not be repeated here. See State v. Hernandez, 121 Idaho 114, 117-18, 822 P.2d 1011, 1014-15 (Ct. App. 1991); State v. Lopez, 106 Idaho 447, 449-51, 680 P.2d 869, 871-73 (Ct. App.

1984); State v. Toohill, 103 Idaho 565, 568, 650 P.2d 707, 710 (Ct. App. 1982). When reviewing the length of a sentence, we consider the defendant's entire sentence. State v. Oliver, 144 Idaho 722, 726, 170 P.3d 387, 391 (2007). Applying these standards, and having reviewed the record in this case, we cannot say that the district court abused its discretion.

Therefore, the district court's order revoking Perez's withheld judgment and imposing sentence is affirmed.
