Effective February 1, 2017

Rule 1. Authority for the Rules. These local rules are promulgated under the authority of Rule 1(c), I.R.C.P., and Rule 2(c), I.C.R. and they will govern the procedures of the District Court including procedures for setting the time and place for the trial of actions and the hearing of all other proceedings and motions. These local rules apply unless in conflict with I.R.C.P., I.C.R., or I.R.F.L.P.

Rule 2. Calendars and Calendaring Matters. Each judge shall control and set his or her own calendar.

2.1 Scheduling Court Hearings or Proceedings. To schedule or re-schedule any court hearing or proceeding, counsel must contact the clerk of the presiding judge to arrange a time certain. If a hearing or proceeding is re-scheduled at the request of counsel, counsel is responsible for noticing opposing counsel. The general schedules for each judge are located on the website for the Fourth Judicial District, <https://fourthjudicialcourt.idaho.gov/>.

2.2 Civil Matters. In all counties of this District, only those civil matters which have been scheduled for hearing by the clerks as provided by this rule and noticed for hearing pursuant to Rules 5(a) and 7(b), I.R.C.P., or Rule 501, I.R.F.L.P., will be heard by the court. Prior to filing notice of hearing upon any matter requiring service and notice under Rules 5(a) and 7(b), I.R.C.P., or Rule 501, I.R.F.L.P., or any other adversary or contested matter requiring hearing or appearing to present proof for default judgment or other non-adversary matter requiring proof, counsel shall contact the clerk of the presiding judge who will assign a time certain for hearing of the matter, and such time and day shall be used by counsel in all notices and shall be the time of hearing. Motions and Orders to Show Cause shall be brought on for hearing in conformance with Rule 7(b), I.R.C.P.

2.3. Civil Motions to be Heard Outside County. Civil motion matters may be heard at chambers in any county within the Fourth Judicial District upon agreement of counsel by making application to the judge to whom the case has been assigned.

2.4. Default proceedings. All motions, notices of hearing, and returns of service showing default must be filed on or before 12:00 o'clock noon of the day preceding the day set for the hearing, if a hearing is required.

Rule 3. Proposed Orders or Judgments. When a matter is resolved by stipulation of the parties or by decision of the court announced in open court, the court may direct one party or the party's counsel to prepare a proposed form of order or judgment, together with any other documents necessary to complete the case, and may make such orders governing further proceedings as may be required to ensure the expeditious conclusion of the case.

Rule 4. Service on Non-Resident Judge. If the office of the presiding judge is outside the county in which an action is pending, the parties shall comply with the requirements of Rule 7(b)(3)(G), I.R.C.P. or Rule 501(C)(6), I.R.F.L.P., with respect to lodging of all briefs, motions, notices of hearing, orders to show cause and proposed jury instructions with the presiding judge. Failure to comply with Rule 7(b)(3)(G), I.R.C.P. or Rule 501(C)(6), I.R.F.L.P., may, in the court's discretion, result in the postponement of any scheduled hearings or other proceedings to be held in the action.

Rule 5. Appearance of Counsel - Contested Motions. In the absence of a stipulation or court order granting a continuance, if the moving party or his attorney fails to personally appear to present an adversary motion at the time set the court may summarily deny the motion for failure to prosecute pursuant to Rule 41(b), I.R.C.P., or Rule 123, I.R.F.L.P., or may deem the motion withdrawn.

If the moving party or his attorney appears to present the motion and the opposing party or his attorney does not appear and the motion has been properly and timely noticed for hearing with proof of due service thereof, the court may render its decision on the merits of the motion.

Rule 6. Time for Argument. Unless a different time is allowed by the presiding judge or a different time is fixed by other controlling rule, arguments on contested motions shall be limited to 15 minutes for each side.

Rule 7. Ex Parte Orders. All applications for ex parte orders, except for applications made pursuant to the Domestic Violence Crime Prevention Act, must be made in propria persona or by an attorney of this court. Ex parte orders will be granted only if (1) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or the party's attorney can be heard in opposition, and, (2) the applicant's attorney or the pro se applicant has certified to the court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting the party's claim that notice should not be required. Every order granting a motion ex parte shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed 14 days, as the court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. Upon the granting of a motion ex parte, the motion shall immediately be set for hearing not later than 14 days after the granting of the ex parte order and the moving party shall serve the motion, supporting affidavits and memoranda, and notice of hearing on the opposing party or counsel. On 2 days' notice to the party who obtained the ex parte order or on such shorter notice to that party as the court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its retraction or modification and in that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

Rule 8. Civil and Criminal Motion Practice.

8.1 Motions. Unless ordered otherwise by the court, each motion and response to such motion, other than a routine or uncontested matter, must be accompanied by a separate memorandum, not to exceed twenty-five (25) pages,

8.2 Proposed Orders. Proposed orders on routine or uncontested matters must be submitted as a separate document at the time the motion is filed. A proposed order is not required when filing dispositive motions and preliminary injunctions. 8.3 Lodging Copies of Motions and Memoranda. If the parties file documents within seven (7) days of a scheduled hearing, the parties shall deliver courtesy copies to the Court's chambers.

8.4. Amendments to Pleadings. A party who moves to amend a pleading must describe the type of the proposed amended pleading in the motion (i.e., motion to amend answer, motion to amend counterclaim). Any amendment to a pleading, whether filed as a matter of course or upon a motion to amend, must reproduce the entire pleading as amended. Failure to comply with this rule is not grounds for denial of the motion. The amended document will be lodged at the time of filing the motion and filed if approved by the court.

8.5.a.4. The Public Defender's Office shall be served with a copy of the motion and any other filings and be served notice by the moving party of any hearing scheduled in the matter whether by the defense or the state.

8.5.b. In the sole discretion of the trial court judge, he or she may require the defendant to produce current state and federal tax returns for up to three (3) years prior to the date of the filing of the charges against the defendant, business records, payroll and income distribution records, W-2 or 1099 federal tax forms, bank account statements, financial and stock records, locations of real estate and other assets, the number and ages of any dependents, any outstanding financial obligations, and such other documentation as may be deemed necessary by the court to make the court's indigency determination.

8.5.e. The Public Defender's Office shall maintain confidentiality as to the requests for services and payment except insofar as otherwise ordered by the court or required as a condition to obtain payment for allowed costs or compliance with county budgeting requirements and applicable public records laws.
