Order on Request to Terminate Probation Developed

As stated previously in the Report to Idaho Courts re: Uniform Business Practices to Implement Legislative and Rule Changes, the new justice reinvestment legislation authorizes any party or the IDOC to apply directly to the court to modify or terminate probation. Per Idaho Code section 20-221(3), the court shall rule on the request for discharge within sixty (60) days of the date of the submittal of the request. As such, it is important that any request to terminate probation filed with the court be IMMEDIATELY FORWARDED to the assigned judge for consideration. It is recommend that judges determine whether or not it is best for their court to set a hearing on the petition upon receipt (to preserve a date that can be vacated later if deemed unnecessary) or to wait until after review of any response to the request (due on or before thirty (30) days of the date of submittal of the request) to determine if a hearing will be set. To assist the courts, the District Judges Workgroup have developed a form: "Order on Request to Terminate Probation."

New to the Idaho Courts

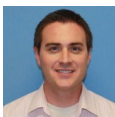

Lindy Hornberger, Law Clerk to Chief Justice Burdick. Lindy grew up in Fort Macleod, Alberta, Canada. Lindy's undergraduate degree is from the University of Lethbridge, where she was also a member of the Pronghorn's basketball team. Her law degree is from the University of Idaho.

Jason Blakley, Law Clerk to Justice Daniel Eismann. Prior to law school, Jason spent ten years living in northern California. Four of those years were spent in San Francisco, where he received his English degree from the University of San Francisco. After college, he and his wife moved to South Lake Tahoe, where they spent six years running a small motel located across the street from the local ski resort, Heavenly. He received his law degree from Notre Dame in May, 2014. Having grown up in Boise, he is happy to be home, close to family, friends, and mountains! In his free time, he enjoys mountain biking, hiking, skiing, and spending time with his wife, Perrine, and golden retriever, Thurman.

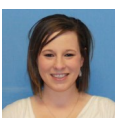

Andrew Wake, Law Clerk to Justice Jim Jones. Andrew was born in Boise, lived elsewhere for a while, then moved back to Boise and earned his undergraduate degree at BSU. He earned a graduate degree in Rochester, NY, moved back to Boise, and taught for about a year at BSU. He attended law school at the University of Utah and then moved back (hopefully for the last time) to Boise. He has been married for just over ten years and his wife has been very patient with all of this moving.

Danny Mortensen, Law Clerk to Justice Warren Jones. Danny grew up in Bonsall, California (San Diego), completed his undergraduate studies at Pomona College in Claremont, California (Go Sagehens!), and received his law degree from Pepperdine University School of Law in Malibu, California. He is married with two daughters and one English Bulldog. He enjoys stand-up paddleboarding and participating in any outdoor adventures his young girls enjoy (or can at least endure), and is looking forward to exploring all of the recreational opportunities Boise has to offer.

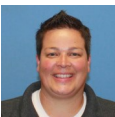

Owen Moroney, Law Clerk to Justice Joel Horton. Owen is originally from Bozeman, Montana, but his wife is a native Idahoan who was born in Boise. Owen obtained an undergraduate degree from Western Washington University, where he received a B.S. in environmental science with an emphasis in freshwater ecology. After graduating, Owen worked in Yellowstone National Park and Devils Postpile National Monument before attending law school at the University of Idaho. He is an avid outdoor enthusiast and can usually be found outdoors on his days off, whether he is hiking, climbing, skiing, hunting, or fishing.

Kelsie Kirkham, Law Clerk to Judge Dave Gratton. Kelsie was born and raised in Idaho Falls, ID. She attended Idaho State University for undergrad, where she obtained a BA in Political Science. She then attended law school at the University of Idaho. She has been married for three years and her husband are expecting their first baby next month. Outside of work, she enjoys camping, hiking, and riding motorcycles.

R. Kade Beorchia, Law Clerk to Judge John Melanson. Kade was raised in Wendell and received a finance degree from Idaho State University. He then attended the University of Idaho, where he earned a JD. While attending the University of Idaho, he had the opportunity to work with the State Board of Education, the federal magistrate court, and the bankruptcy court. He and his wife live in Nampa with their three children, and are expecting their fourth in December. His primary hobbies are fly fishing and restoring vintage Volkswagens.

Kristy Grabo, Virtualization Administrator. Kristy grew up in Arizona, then moved and graduated from Weber State University in Utah. After graduating, she moved to Boise and began working for Boise Cascade. She worked for Boise Cascade and has been in Boise for 13 years. She currently lives in Star, Idaho and enjoys the quiet of being out among the farmland. She enjoys the outdoors of Idaho (much cooler than the outdoors of Arizona) and can be found in the mountains riding ATVs or Camping in her spare time. Just recently she has been introduced to fishing which she really loves. She also loves DIY projects. Kristy is excited to be here and working with everyone.

Kasey Kliegl, 5th District Guardianship & Conservatorship Monitoring Coordinator. Kasey is a native of Idaho and has lived in Idaho her entire life. She is a graduate from Idaho State University with a Bachelor of Arts in History. She currently lives in Twin Falls with her husband Joey and has two beautiful daughters, Zoe and Colbie. Zoe is a sophomore at the University of Idaho. Colbie is a freshman at Filer Middle School. She has worked for the judicial system in Twin Falls County for a little over twelve years as a deputy clerk. She originally started in the records division and was promoted to criminal clerk and then to an in-court clerk. Kasey was instrumental in the development of the Twin Falls DUI Court; manager of the guardianship/conservatorship cases and has clerked for several Magistrate Judges. She is very passionate about the outdoors and reading. She has a green thumb and a love of cooking, canning, and gardening. If she is not in her yard working, chances are, you can find her curled up with a good book or more often than not you can find her enjoying the mountains with her family and dogs.
