

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Dennis B. Current v. Haddons Fencing, Inc., Docket No. 37740

The Idaho Supreme Court holds that there was substantial and competent evidence to support the Industrial Commission's finding that Current willfully made a false statement in his application for benefits. The Supreme Court also holds that the hearing officer did not abuse her discretion in finding that one of Current's witnesses would not provide relevant testimony.