

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Rocky Mountain Power v. Jensen, 37998

This Court affirms the district court's decision granting Rocky Mountain Power's Motion for Summary Judgment allowing Rocky Mountain Power to take Stanley and Catherine Jensen's ("the Jensens") property by eminent domain. The Jensens did not offer competent evidence to establish that there was a genuine issue of material fact as to the just compensation paid for their property. This Court also held that the Jensens failed to establish that the district court abused its discretion when it denied their Motion for Reconsideration.
