PER CURIAM

Pursuant to a plea agreement, Robert Allen Wynia plead guilty to lewd conduct with a minor child under sixteen, Idaho Code § 18-1508, and admitted to being a repeat sex offender, I.C. § 19-2520(G)(2). The district court sentenced Wynia to a unified term of life, with a minimum period of confinement of twenty years. Wynia appeals.

Sentencing is a matter for the trial court's discretion. Both our standard of review and the factors to be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of the sentence are well established and need not be repeated here. See State v. Hernandez, 121 Idaho 114, 117-18, 822 P.2d 1011, 1014-15 (Ct. App. 1991); State v. Lopez, 106 Idaho 447, 449-51, 680 P.2d 869, 871-73 (Ct. App.

1984); State v. Toohill, 103 Idaho 565, 568, 650 P.2d 707, 710 (Ct. App. 1982). When reviewing the length of a sentence, we consider the defendant's entire sentence. State v. Oliver, 144 Idaho 722, 726, 170 P.3d 387, 391 (2007). Applying these standards, and having reviewed the record in this case, we cannot say that the district court abused its discretion.

Therefore, Wynia's judgment of conviction and sentence are affirmed.
