

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Farrell v. Whiteman, No. 37712

In a suit by an architect against a real estate developer, the Supreme Court affirmed the district court's award of damages under quantum meruit, holding that the quality of Farrell's work was a proper factor in determining the reasonable value of his services. The Court also upheld the district court's award of attorney's fees and costs to Farrell.